

THE BEST OF PARIS: FOOD, ART, HISTORY!

APRIL 19-25, 2026

* =optional activity, additional cost

Sunday, April 19

Arrive at your leisure and ease into the rhythm of the City of Light. Enjoy a leisurely stroll through the neighborhood's charming streets—or simply unwind in your room after your travels. This evening, we'll gather for a festive welcome dinner at a beloved Parisian restaurant, a favorite haunt of American presidents and locals alike. Bon appétit!

DINNER

Monday, April 20

We'll wander through the storied hilltop neighborhood of Montmartre today, taking in its legendary cafés, quirky bookshops, artists' studios, elegant churches, pocket-sized museums, and the leafy squares and monuments that give this district its unmistakable charm. After lunch in a rooftop restaurant with sweeping views, we'll make our way to the romantic Parc Monceau, where we'll uncover the history of the neighborhood and the fascinating figures who shaped these enchanting gardens.

LUNCH

Tuesday, April 21

This morning, we'll step into the lovingly restored Jacquemart-André Museum to admire its sumptuous collection of Italian Renaissance paintings, sculptures, and period furnishings. After a leisurely lunch nearby, we'll set off for the timeless Père Lachaise Cemetery, where fabled mausoleums, winding paths, and centuries of captivating history await.

LUNCH

Wednesday, April 22

Enjoy a leisurely free morning, or meet us at noon in the lively Bastille quarter for an optional cheese tasting* at a quirky wine bar—an enchanting introduction to France's most beloved cheeses and the artistry, tradition, and pride behind them. After lunch at your leisure, we'll wander through the glorious Grand Palais to take in its special exhibition. Later, indulge in a hands-on chocolate workshop before rounding out the day with an optional jazz evening at an iconic club in the 15th arrondissement.

OPTIONAL CHEESE TASTING, LUNCH at LEISURE

Thursday, April 23

We'll begin with a leisurely stroll through the ever-trendy Marais, exploring its elegant private mansions, chic boutiques, and richly layered history. After lunch in the neighborhood, we'll head to the splendid Orsay Museum to experience its special exhibition Renoir and Love, showcasing more than 50 masterpieces—including celebrated works like Dance at the Moulin de la Galette and Luncheon of the Boating Party. In the early evening, we'll unwind with an intimate wine tasting* in a private residence, guided by a professional sommelier.

LUNCH, OPTIONAL WINE TASTING

Friday, April 24

Enjoy a full day at leisure—revisit your favorite Parisian spots or set off to discover an entirely new corner of the city. Pascale will offer an optional private museum visit (limited to six participants); together with your fellow travelers, you'll choose which museum to explore, with plenty of inspiring suggestions on hand. This evening, we'll celebrate our final night in style with a sumptuous dinner at a Michelin-starred restaurant, where exquisite cuisine and elegant surroundings promise a sensational send-off

DINNER

Saturday, April 25

Departure is always difficult after such an incredible week, and we highly encourage you to spend more time in Paris or explore other parts of France if you have time. If you'd like to spend one more day, then come with us to....

Saturday, April 25****

Giverny! This enchanting village along the Seine was once home to Monet and his colorful, flower-filled gardens. Today, we'll explore his beloved domain, soaking in the colors and atmosphere that inspired so many masterpieces. After lunch in an attractive riverside restaurant, we'll visit the studio of a contemporary Parisian artist before returning to Paris for our final night at the hotel.

LUNCH

Sunday, April 26

Final departure this morning for those who opted for the Giverny outing.